OVERCOMERS

He entered the room behind two of his older brothers, quiet at first, but by the end of the night, his smile and laughter were simply irresistible. That was the first night of many blessings Chris brought to Walking Tall. Most of us have had struggles in life, but we don't always see adversity on the surface. Chris is an overcomer with a plan, and he has inspired many others with his gentleness, integrity, and positive attitude. His willingness to serve others is evident, as he would joyfully help if someone were in need. To see the blended tapestry of his mission's group sharing their personal stories, describing their experiences, and offering love and hope to others is very gratifying.

"I wouldn't be the person I am today without Walking Tall. That's a pretty big thing to say, but it's true. Hi, my name is Chris! I started attending Walking Tall when I was a sophomore in high school. Now I am 18 years young and currently a missionary on the road with NET Ministries. I have been with NET since last August and have traveled through 14 different states including Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, North Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon, and Washington. We drive around and share God's love with the youth of the country. One way we do this is by sharing our personal testimonies, and personally my testimony involves Walking Tall. Every day when I share my testimony, I talk about Walking Tall and the changes it's made in my life. So again, that is why I say, "I wouldn't be the person I am today without Walking Tall." Know that I am praying for all who read this, and I ask you to pray for me as I continue my mission."

Thank you,
Chris

Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established.
