"I Have been very blessed to be involved with Walking Tall for the last three and a half years. One of my Hobbies has been woodworking. When I can pass this on to our young men and see their eyes light up, their minds trying to figure out the woodworking process, and their smile when they finish a project, that is priceless. Along the way, we get to visit about life. I Listen to some of their issues and struggles with friends or family, the lack of family support, and talk about Jesus. Sometimes they have many questions. Other times we just laugh and talk. I have had the opportunity to share my testimony with some of our young men, and they share a lot with me. Our calling as a mentor is to help them get through this time of their young adult life. Seeing the positive change is awesome. It has been a pleasure watching the growth in these young men and witnessing the positive relationships that each mentor has with our Walking Tall family. Thank you, Tom, for Walking, up to me at church and inviting me to Walking Tall. Also, I want to thank Judy and her kitchen staff for their dedication and great food."

Shining Stars

We, chosen, are shining stars,
 Amidst the darkest skies;
 Twinkling brightly, oh so brightly,
 As beacons in the night.
 His Word of hope, we hold out to,
 The world for all to see;
 It's Christ in us, the hope of glory,
 It's Christ in us, the victory.
 His Word of hope, lives inside us,
 His Word of truth and life;
 Our reason, purpose, revelation,
 to shine amidst both sky and Heaven.
 To bring His hope to hearts of those,
 whose hope is lost, misplaced and gone;
 And know not what is next, ahead,
 to where or whom, they do belong.
 So set your face upon His grace,
 your heart, your mind, your life and strength;
 And Christ will come and fill you there, infuse you with His brightness where;
 The world will see so brilliantly,
 Christ in you, His shimmering glory.

Those who look to Him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame.
