Dear Walking Tall,

As our son is heading to college, we would like to express our gratitude for preparing him for adulthood!

At first hand, we saw the difference in Matt since his involvement in WT. He learned trade skills, like welding, construction, woodworking, and more—Matt's exposure to different tools and how to use them.

Truly, it was instrumental in building his character and discipline, and no doubt, they are confident and excited in him!

Most valuable is that in WT, Matt had the opportunity to see men from our community who sincerely care about young people and share their skills and time unconditionally.

Walking Tall is a mix of goodness, where young people have fun learning, get enriched, and inspired!

And not least, it's the fulfillment of the verse in 1Thessalonians 4:11-12.

"Make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business and work with your hands, just as we told you, so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders and so that you will not be dependent on anybody."

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts, to all who support and are involved in WT, for your input in the lives of our young people! May the Lord continue to bless your ministry, a ministry of Love and care!

With grateful hearts, the Mcpheeters, Larry and Guma
