Hardwired

I'm 14 years old and have been coming to Walking Tall for nearly two years.

I have been working on the electrical parts of the bus with mentor Dan. Speaking of mentor Dan, he makes my day because he always has a bright smile.

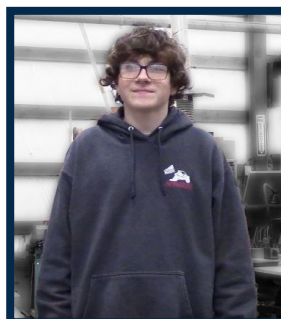

I like how I have a relationship with God; even if I do some stupid things in life, he will still be there for me.

I like the saying we have on a board that reads, "follow my example as I follow the example of Christ." I want to be a better person, follow God, and worship him until my death.

My goal is to join the army someday as an engineer or an electrical engineer, working on the bus has helped me with this decision.

My challenges in life are with my school and Walking Tall has relieved most of my stress about school. Walking Tall means family to me.

We hope every young man at Walking Tall connects to a mentor to help them along their path in life. Our mentors are someone who carries themselves in their faith in a way that inspires young men to be better. They are mentors with which the young men can discuss and expand their insights. They hold these young men accountable when they're slacking off in responsibilities and praise them for a well-done job. They will also come alongside them when they're troubled with difficulties or grief. Finally, the mentors do their best to be examples of Christ.

And so we are transfigured much like the Messiah, our lives gradually becoming brighter and more beautiful as God enters our lives and we become like him. 2 Corinthians 3:18b, MSG
