Intentional Guidance

Since I began attending Walking Tall some eight years back, the last few years have seen me lose contact with many of my friends and mentors. This is mainly because my work as a martial arts instructor took much of my energy and focus. A few weeks ago, however, I determined to come to a Monday evening again to re-connect and see how much the ministry had grown. I cannot tell you how encouraged I felt by the welcome I received. It is a special kind of relationship that can stand the test of distance and time, and I am honored to have cultivated so many of those relationships throughout my past years at Walking Tall. For the future, I plan to continue coming on Mondays whenever possible to learn from the mentors, meet new faces, assist in the ways I can, and further establish solid relationships with the Godly men and women of the ministry. I am beginning to understand Paul's gratitude expressed in Philippians chapter one; specifically, I thank my God in all my remembrance of you. - Joshua

The Message in 1 Timothy 4 says;

Get the word out. Teach all these things. And don't let anyone put you down because you're young. Teach believers with your life: by word, by demeanor, by love, by faith, by integrity. Stay at your post reading scripture, giving counsel, teaching. Cultivate these things. Immerse yourself in them. The people will all see you mature right before their eyes! Keep a firm grasp on both your character and your teaching. Don't be diverted. Just keep at it. Both you and those who hear you will experience salvation.

Thank you for your support and prayers!
