A Veteran Man

Jack was a forklift driver at Harry and David's for 37 years before he retired. He was looking for something to do, and his friend Dan offered to bring him to Walking Tall. He's been with WT for several years and has enjoyed it since that first day.

Working with the young men on the bus and seeing them learn new skills is what he enjoys most. Some of the young men he's worked with have moved on to college or entered the service; many new young men have since joined the bus crew. Managing larger projects often takes more resources and time than smaller ones and can require more hands-on involvement. Family is essential to Jack. He has two sons and three grandchildren and has been married for 50 years. A noble example of marriage for young men to witness. Known as a happy-go-lucky man, he's struggled with being outgoing; this program has helped him come out of his comfort zone.

Jack is always improving his faith in the Lord by being in the word, being prayerful, and having a more meaningful relationship with our Heavenly Father.

These are the wise sayings of Solomon,
David's son, Israel's king—

Written down so we'll know how to live well and right, to understand what life means and where it's going;

A manual for living,
for learning what's right and just and fair;
To teach the inexperienced the ropes
and give our young people a grasp on reality.

There's something here also for seasoned
men and women,
still a thing or two for the experienced to learn—

Fresh wisdom to probe and penetrate, the rhymes and reasons of wise men and women.
