MEMORIES QUOTES FROM THE 2023 FISHING TRIP

Getting up at 5:30 with friends to go fishing. It was nice, and I haven't been fishing in years.

I liked fishing and the food, and I liked hanging out with my grandpa.

Spending time with my grandson, and the young men. Bonding while out fishing, eating, and around the campfire.

The comradery with the mentors and the kids and seeing how everyone was getting along, whether playing football, hanging around the campfire, or down fishing was cool.

I had a great time with the young men. One was sharing a career choice. One showed me his bible. Playing horseshoes and taking five young men fishing. It was a wonderful time!

Best steak I had all year. I got to visit and learn about others' lives and their projects.

Walking with one of the mentors and talking about life.

Gathering by the fire, fellowship with great conversation and there was nothing to stress about.

Sitting around the campfire with other men and young men and telling stories. It was very relaxing.

When I mastered walking on floating logs.

Seeing guys on the shore, on the boat, enjoying time with the mentors. Everyone being able to let down their guard and enjoy each other and their time fishing.

Going out on the boat and catching fish with mentors on Freds boat.

I caught a fish and saw a lot of new people here. This is my seventh year and it's so cool to see young men change, that's what this is all about. Bringing them out of their shell, some have never fished in their life. You could see that they had a great time.

Bonding with my good new buddies, they are very caring.

It's great to spend more time with everyone and build those deep personal relationships up there, it's really neat.

I had a lot of fun playing cards and stuff.

When we went to a water intake tower, we found a tunnel and went down in it, and it was fun.

A lot of fish, a lot of fun. I enjoyed it, it was exciting.

Socializing and getting to know people better was the most awesome part of the whole trip.

Talking to a mentor about faith and learning more about him and making new friends.

A lot of fishing, joking around, staying up late. We got into some deep conversation. It means a lot for us to be able to do this because it helps us to bond better.

Meeting new people and fishing, watching my younger brother catch his first fish.

Sleeping in the tent and spending time talking to other people around the fire.

And He said to them,
"Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."
Matthew 4:19
