PEAR BLOSSOM STREET FAIR

WT Redwood Products, a branch of Walking Tall Southern Oregon (WT), participated in the Pear Blossom Street Fair last Friday and Saturday. The event served as a platform for the young men from WT to showcase their handmade furniture and other crafted items. When WT young men turn 18, they get the opportunity to work for WT Redwood, where they learn the art of crafting furniture and gain knowledge of business operations. The fair allowed them to enhance their selling techniques and social skills, enabling them to communicate effectively with potential customers and share their knowledge of the products. These skills are crucial for building rapport with potential customers and supporters of Walking Tall.
