ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Kyle was involved in Walking Tall (WT) for three years before moving to another area. His mother works as a traveling nurse, leading him to live in various states. He is the middle child among seven siblings from a blended family and has a good relationship with all of them. Unfortunately, Kyle lost his father a year ago in a motorcycle accident. He had not seen his father for about two years before his father's passing because he was living in a different state. It has been quite challenging for Kyle to cope with this loss. However, he shared that the uplifting people at Walking Tall have helped him deal with his grief.

Kyle shared that he learned about Walking Tall from his uncle. Although he was initially nervous when he arrived, not knowing anyone, he soon fell in love with the place. Walking Tall has had a positive impact on him, making him a calmer person. Since joining, he has stopped using foul language and has become kinder to others, which has made him much happier. Kyle enjoys playing video games but also wants to be more physically active and less lazy. Participating at WT in gardening, welding, and construction helped him achieve his goal. He celebrated after successfully securing railroad ties in place using rebar and a sledgehammer, despite feeling exhausted.

One good memory he'll take is when he and a friend from Walking Tall re-dedicated themselves at an event near a river. After the event, he felt blessed, more peaceful, and happier.

Please keep Kyle in your prayers. Even though he enjoys taking photos and exploring new areas, he gets lonely when moving to new places.
