Growing in God

Mentors from Terry's church had been urging him to join Walking Tall (WT) for a while. Tom and Judy invited Terry, his wife and two grandsons out for a tour. After which, Terry made the decision to become a mentor. Expressing, there are many valuable skills to be learned here. Terry's background includes teaching computer classes, sales, and management, Currently, he is making meaningful contributions to the Walking Tall Horticulture department for young men. He is excited to see expansion and newer things coming. It is always wonderful to have fresh produce brought in from the garden to share with the others. However, he said there could be more if we had bees. He suggested the idea of starting beekeeping in the spring to Tom because there should be numerous bees around the vegetation here. There is a decline in the bee population in the US due to viruses introduced from other countries.

Terry expressed his gratitude and admiration for the start of this program. He appreciates having mentors of all ages, including several with whom he has long-standing friendships. He believes that coming to WT can provide support for young men who might otherwise feel isolated, especially when left at home alone. He is impressed by the significance of having Jesus at the center of everything and the optimistic atmosphere of the program, which always turns challenges into positives.

Terry firmly supports the unified goal of nurturing these young men in both faith and skills.

But the seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and by persevering produce a crop.
Luke 8:15
