WALKING TALL AT MADE IN SOUTHERN OREGON

At Walking Tall (WT), we believe in the power of face-to-face communication and being present in the moment. That's why we have a policy of not using digital devices. This helps everyone stay aware of their surroundings and ensures safety for everyone. Plus, it encourages our young men to interact with each other in person, which is super important for their social skills! Over the past weekend, WT took part in the "Made in Southern Oregon" event in Central Point. The social skills exhibited by the young men from WT left a positive impression on the customers who visited our booth. One of the standout young men was Logan, who successfully connected with many visitors and made multiple sales. He actively engaged with people in front of the booth, leaving a lasting impact. Upon leaving the event, Logan expressed gratitude for the opportunity, thanking us for allowing him to be part of the event. All the young men interacted with the visitors, effectively communicating the values and mission of Walking Tall.

The young men have created various projects such as Redwood furniture, cutting boards, pens, crosses, chimes, wooden jewelry boxes, metal flowers, and more. These items will be available for purchase at our upcoming Friend Raiser event.

Please see the attached flyer for a reminder about this event.

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works.
