A BETTER ENVIRONMENT

Evan is a quiet and kind young man struggling emotionally when he first came to Walking Tall. He and his mom, two siblings, and two pets live with his grandparents. He asked his mom about receiving some therapeutic help. His grandpa is friends with Tom and told his mom about Walking Tall. Evan thought he would be at a place to sit and talk and didn't realize it was a hands-on learning program. However, working with his hands alongside a mentor was much better, Evan said. He appreciates the enthusiastic mentors and their willingness to share their knowledge. Evan likes how friendly everyone is and has fun while creating things. He preferred elementary school over middle school because he had a fifth-grade teacher who would have conversations with him and make him feel valued. Nowadays, some people at his school are mean. At Walking Tall, Evan feels more respected, and it provides a better environment for himself. Evan looks forward to coming to Walking Tall. Before coming here, he wasn't very active, and he knew physical work was beneficial, unlike just being on his phone. Evan enjoys drawing and woodworking and has gained much knowledge from working in the Walking Tall wood shop. He also works with his grandpa in his grandpa's workshop. Evan believes that people with faith are typically calm and compassionate, and he wants to strengthen his relationship with God.

Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God;
I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Isaiah 41:10
