We had a great time with Peter Brock, who made time to connect with the Walking Tall group. He shared his passion for automotive design and is known for his work on iconic vehicles like the Shelby Daytona coupe and the 1963 Corvette Split Window Coupe. He then introduced his new innovative “studio concept” version of the Corvette Split Window at the SEMA show. What a cool car!

At the prayer breakfast, attendees were inspired by automotive legends Barry Meguiar, founder of Meguiar's Car Wax and Revival Outside the Walls, and Antron Brown, a NHRA Top Fuel racer and devout Christian. Antron recognized the Walking Tall group, praising their dedication to supporting him at his races each year. He then led a heartfelt prayer, encouraging individuals to invite Jesus into their hearts. In a powerful moment, a young man from the Walking Tall group responded. This marked the second young man to do so during the trip, thanks to one of our mentors. After breakfast, we entered SEMA as part of a small group dedicated to shining the light of Jesus.

Through our host family, we had the chance to assemble furniture for housing solutions that empower individuals affected by the justice system or facing the urgent challenge of homelessness, fostering hope and a brighter future. When God touches a life, the impact spreads through our relationships and communities. Together on this mission trip, we felt the significance of our connections.

Thank you for your support and prayers!

Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2
